DRAWINGS HAVE BEEN MADE FOR WALL CUP TOURNAMENT

Preliminary Matches Will Be Played Today and Tomorrow—Semi-Finals on Thursday, Finals on Friday, and Winner Meets Atherton Richards Saturday.

At last! Today the play in the Wall Cup tournament really commences, two matches being scheduled to start at 4 o'clock this afternoon, and the other two in the preliminary round tomorrow at the same hour.

Drawings were made yesterday afternoon and resulted in the pairing of the players as follows:

Nowell (owe 15) vs. Cooke (owe 15).
Bockus (scratch) vs. Bartlett (15).
Doerr (scratch) vs. Castle (owe 15).
Wall (owe 15) vs. Barnes (15).

For this afternoon Nowell will meet Cooke and Doerr will play Castle in the preliminaries, and then tomorrow Nowell and Cooke will play their series, and Wall will meet Barnes.

Thursday afternoon the semi-finals will be on between the winners of the preliminary rounds and then the winners of the match will go up against Atherton Richards, the present champion, on Saturday.

Richards has been ill at his home, and it is possible that the match between him and the winner of the tournament this year can not be pulled off on Saturday, as he may not have his strength back enough to get into the game in hard shape.

He wants a few days to practise, but said last evening that he would try to be in shape to meet the winner on Saturday afternoon if possible.

If he is unable to play at that time, there should be no trouble in arranging to have the final games played some time next week after Richards gets back into proper form.

The entries in the tournament this year are two less than in the last tournament, two men having come to the mainland who played in last season's series, so that the number of players is really about the same as in the last tournament.

The way the handicaps have been arranged should result in some good tennis being seen during the next few days on the Beretania courts.

Both Nowell and Cooke are starting from scratch, as both have the same standing, and this series, which is to be played this afternoon, should be one of the best in the preliminary round.

Then the Castle-Doerr match, which is also scheduled for today, should be a close one, Castle owing 15 and Doerr starting from scratch. When one player or even 15, no matter how much of a player he is, it is a considerable handicap to overcome, and the scratch man should be right in at the finish under such conditions.

In the matches tomorrow, the Bockus-Bartlett go should be the best one, as the men are more evenly matched than in the second match of the afternoon.

The Wall-Barnes match, with a difference of thirty points to start with, will make Wall go some to beat his antagonist and should bring out some good tennis in the struggle.

No entries for the Hall Cup play have been made as yet, those in charge waiting until the end of the Wall tournament before announcing the exact date when the play will start.

In the last tournament there were twenty-three entries for this play, and this year it is expected that there will be at least as many players enroll themselves for the contest for this cup.

The Wall Cup tournament is restricted to members of the Beretania club, while the play in the Hall Cup is open to all players in the city.

DOTS AND DASHES.

The baseball season is now on at Schofield Barracks and the regular games in the series are being played each week.

This afternoon the rugby game between local players and a team from the Algerine will take place at Makiki grounds.

The tennis balls are here and the Wall Cup tournament is to begin at 4 o'clock this afternoon without fail, two matches being played.

RAISE FUNDS TO DEFEND MCGRATH

Athletic enthusiasts and persons interested in the career of Matthew McGrath, the celebrated athlete and champion hammer thrower of the New York Athletic Club, have been appealed to all over the country to assist in clearing him of charges for which he will soon be brought to trial.

McGrath has had the misfortune to be made the defendant for an alleged crime which was committed in the defense of his home from an intruder. Sufficient funds are being gathered by friends of McGrath from all over the United States for defraying the expenses of his trial, and prominent local athletic followers have been included in the list of those who have been asked to subscribe to the fund.

Martin Sheridan, the world's greatest all-round athlete, and Patrick Conway, president of the Irish-American Athletic Club of New York, are foremost in this effort to save McGrath from being a victim of circumstances.

Since the retirement of John Flanagan from the athletic world McGrath has been recognized as the greatest hammer thrower of the present time. He was a member of the American team to the Olympic games at London in 1908 and was figured to be the mainstay of the American team to Sweden next year. The loss of McGrath from the ranks of the athletes today would be a severe blow indeed. McGrath is a member of the New York police force.

Tommy Burns Asks Balm.

SEATTLE, Wash., Mar. 2.—Tommy Burns, the pugilist, began a $50,000 suit today against the Puget Sound Electric Company, asking damages in that sum for personal injuries sustained December 13 in a collision between two of the concern's interurban trains.

The fighter says he came out of the wreck with his right leg broken and knee, shoulders and back wrenched to the extent of permanent injury.

He was thus prevented from engaging in pugilistic contests and rendered unfit to battle with Sam Langford, a fight sought to be arranged by Hugh McIntosh, the Australian promoter.

Jack Lester, who was to sail on the Aorangi for Australia to fight Bill Lang, on April 16, has gone forward on the Mariposa and will tranship at Tahiti. The Aorangi was delayed in sailing from San Francisco and would not land him in Sydney in time for the scheduled fight, so he went on another steamer.
